

Investment Objective

The Fund seeks to provide long-term growth of capital through capital appreciation and dividend income.

Investment Strategy

The Fund normally invests in securities of domestic and foreign public utilities and energy companies involved to a significant extent in providing products, services or equipment for the utilities, energy and telecom industries.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Firm, founded in 1961, specializes in utility, energy, and telecommunications related sector stocks. Reaves believes its long history of investing in this style provides an informational advantage in understanding the regulatory and legislative landscape and company fundamentals to select the appropriate entry and exit points in a security.

Portfolio Positioning

Investors seeking a low correlated, conservative, dividend generating portfolio, to complement other investments or asset classes.

Experienced Management

The fund is managed by a team of investment professionals with an average of 27 years investment industry experience.

It is not possible to invest directly in an index.

S&P 500 Index is an unmanaged index containing common stocks of 500 industrial, transportation, utility and financial companies, regarded as generally representative of the U.S. stock market. The return per the total return index reflects the reinvestment of income dividends and capital gain distributions, but does not reflect fees, brokerage commissions, or other expenses of investing. The Fund includes a significant percentage of assets that are also found in the S&P 500 Index. However, the Fund is far less diversified, resulting in higher sector concentrations than found in the broad-based S&P 500 Index.

S&P Utilities Sector Index is a subset of the S&P 500 Index that contains those securities that fall under utilities sector. This equity index does not have telecommunications or energy equities that are contained in the Fund.
